

Summary of Potential Debate Sponsors

District Number	Organization Name	Cost	Method of Approach	Experience & Expertise	Perception of Nonpartisanship
District 5	Globe/Miami Chamber of Commerce	$250 per debate	Give each candidate timed opening and closing remarks (possibly 2 mins.). Collect audience questions, Publicity : e-mail all chamber members, send news releases to media and contact local radio stations.	Held a debate for all candidates (total of 8) running for Federal Legis. Dist. 1. Coverage provided by local radio and newspapers. Approx. 50 people in attendance.	Have not endorsed any candidate for legis./statewide office for the past 5 years. Do not endorse any political party or ideological advocacy group.
District 6 (also interested in 7)	North Phoenix Chamber of Commerce (NPCC)	TBD	Give each candidate timed opening and closing remarks. Audience questions submitted by a card, prior to the start of the debate. Publicity : NPCC monthly newsletter & website, press releases, blast e-mail to all NPCC members, special mailings to area community associations.	Sponsored debates for general election legis. Candidates and city of Phoenix mayor & council. Approx. 50-75 people in attendance.	The Chamber does not take positions on specific issues. They foster business growth and prosperity, thus enhancing the quality of life of the entire area.
District 7	Not yet confirmed.
District 12	Not yet confirmed.

Summary of Potential Debate Sponsors

District Number	Organization Name	Cost	Method of Approach	Experience &amp; Expertise	Perception of Nonpartisanship
District 13	Cartwright Education Association	TBD	With support & direction from CCEC sponsor has indicated willingness and desire to sponsor debates. Flexible regarding debate format.	No prior experience but the sponsor has community support.	Cartwright Education Assoc. is the professional organization that represents teachers and support staff in the Cartwright School District. Focus is based
District 14	Not yet confirmed.
District 15	Not yet confirmed.
District 19	Not yet confirmed.

Summary of Potential Debate Sponsors

District Numer	Organization Name	Cost	Method of Approach	Experience & Expertise	Perception of Nonpartisanship
District 21	Not yet confirmed.
District 23	Pinal County	$525/ per debate	Candidates given opening statements, a series of questions, and a closing statement. Publicity: Series of advertisements and press releases to the media in the district. Announcements on Pinal County Government television in message format.	Have not sponsored debates. Have extensive experience in holding public hearings.	County government, by definition, is a nonpartisan entity.
District 24	People for the USA, Yuma Chapter	$1,500 per debate	Candidates will be allowed opening and closing remarks with the audience allowed to submit written questions to the moderator. Publicity: radio spots, local channel PSAs, press releases to the local newspaper, newsletter	Have sponsored debates in 1998, 2000, and 2002 for local and county candidates.	501c3 organization with a national chapter based in Wyoming and four AZ chapters. They do not endorse any candidates.
District 25	Cochise College	$0	Some set questions and audience members may submit questions that will be screened by the moderator. Publicity: t.v., radio, newspaper, PSAs, flyers put up around campus.	Have sponsored congressional debates in 2000 and 2002, which were televised and well attended.	As a community college, they are nonpartisan by definition.

